PSC SETS HEARING SCHEDULE IN TERRITORIAL AGREEMENT CASE

Jefferson City (August 9, 2004)---The Missouri Public Service Commission will hold a hearing in mid-September in a territorial agreement case between Aquila, Inc. d/b/a Aquila Networks-MPS and Osage Valley Electric Cooperative.

The hearing will be held on September 10, 2004, in Room 310 of the Governor Office Building, 200 Madison Street, in Jefferson City. The Governor Office Building is a facility that meets the accessibility standards of the Americans With Disabilities Act (ADA). If a person needs additional accommodations to participate in the hearing, please call the Public Service Commission's hotline at 1-800-392-4211 (voice) or Relay Missouri at 711, prior to the hearing.

Aquila, Inc. d/b/a Aquila Networks-MPS and Osage Valley Electric Cooperative are seeking Commission approval of a territorial agreement which designates the service areas of each supplier in a portion of Cass County near Peculiar, Missouri.

According to the application, the joint applicants state the establishment of exclusive service territories will prevent future duplication of electric service facilities, address the special circumstances of customers located therein and will also allow electric service customers within the area to know with certainty the supplier of their electric service. The Joint Applicants state the proposed territorial agreement will not require the transfer of any facilities or customers between Aquila, Inc. d/b/a Aquila Networks-MPS and Osage Valley Electric Cooperative.
